

The FCC will be deciding at the end of this month (May) to remove the ownership restrictions on broadcasters. When they remove the restrictions on ownership your access to information will be controlled by a few companies.

Do not let broadcasters consolidate ownership. They have already stifled debate on this very important issue by not covering it. I do not want to see the TV bands to be homogenized the way the FM radio spectrum has been in the past decade.